Lecture: The Tea of Nepal, Friday, March 1st, 6pm-8pm

Nepalese tea is considered some of the best in the world. Take a journey with tea connoisseur, Jeni Dodd, to find out why. We'll learn about the culture, history, and geographic characteristics that contribute to a unique growing environment that can't be found anywhere else. Together we'll have the opportunity to sample some of these delicacy teas from Nepal.

SIG: Anime, Tuesday, March 5th, 4:00—6:00pm

This month, participants will begin watching one of the most popular Japanese franchises, Pretty Cure. The first season features two girls, Nagisa and Honoka, who are transformed by fairies into legendary warriors in order to combat the forces of darkness.

Lecture: New Orleans Culture, Music, and Food, Tuesday, March 5th, 6pm-8pm

In honor of Mardi Gras, come learn about the music, magic, and morbid fascinations of New Orleans that have made it one of the most captivating places in the world. Join culture writer & New Orleans native, Stephen Pitalo, to discuss everything from gumbo to blues, from voodoo to parades. You'll learn why New Orleans continues to fascinate and exhilarate visitors as well as natives.

Fitness: Yoga & Meditation Thursday, March 21st, 4:00pm-5:30pm

Whether you're a beginner or intermediate Yogi, come relax with yoga instructor, Kyla Barkin. Workout clothing and clean socks are mandatory. After the yoga workout concludes at around 5pm, participants are invited to enjoy an optional guided meditation from 5pm to 5:30pm.

SIG: Book Lovers, Friday, March 22nd, 2:00-3:00pm

The Book Lover's group will be reading Crazy Rich Asians, the first in Kevin Kwan's trilogy. After Rachel Chu finds out that her boyfriend is an heir to one of the wealthiest families in Singapore, she must make a decision about how to handle both this information and his family. As always, there's no need to read the book beforehand.

Town Hall: Thursday, March 28th 6:00-7:00pm

Town Hall is a leadership meeting that helps us plan future programming. All Felicity House participants are invited to join, listen, bring up ideas, and share feedback on current programs and events. Comments can be shared during the meeting or by putting them in the suggestion box.

SIG: Movie Lovers, Friday, March 29th, 3:45-4:45pm

At this month's Movie SIG, we will explore some of the greatest cult classic films of all time. Come join a guided discussion on movies such as Ridley Scott's Blade Runner and Jim Henson's Labyrinth. No need to watch these movies beforehand to join the group.

Movie Night: The Wizard of Oz, Friday, March 29th at 5:00pm

This month's movie is The Wizard of Oz. Community Members are invited to sing-a-long as we watch this treasured classic about Dorothy's famous trip to OZ. Pizza and popcorn will be provided.

CURIOUS ABOUT OUR PROGRAMMING?

At Felicity House we take pride in planning diverse and thoughtful programs that reflect our community's interests. We've had lectures on tea tasting, fashion, art, robotics, astronomy, science, etc. We've hosted workshops where we learned how to apply special effects makeup, play poker, make sushi, and paint with watercolors.

One of our favorite workshops was terrarium making, Check out the video link above to learn how to make a terrarium.
